

Claims:

1. I claim as my invention the use of digital cameras for rear and side view imaging for motor vehicles.
2. I claim as my invention the use of a flat panel display of the views along the sides and behind a motor vehicle.
3. I claim as my invention the use of a flat panel display with an integrated seamless image of the views along side and behind a motor vehicle.
4. I claim as my invention the use of a recording device to capture the camera views along the sides and behind a motor vehicle.
5. I claim as my invention the use of a distance sensor incorporated with the camera views and recording device capturing the views along the sides and behind a motor vehicle.
6. I claim as my invention the use of a speed sensor incorporated with the camera views and recording device capturing the views along the sides and behind a motor vehicle.
7. I claim as my invention the use of a timer incorporated with the camera views and recording device capturing the views along the sides and behind a motor vehicle.